ROBBERS VISIT TWO SMALL TOWNS

Enter Hutchinson's Grain Elevator at Arlington And Steal $35 Worth of War Stamps

BELONGED TO C. RUCKER.

Also Break Into Elevator and Lumber Company Offices at Morristown—Get Small Sum of Money

Rush county was again visited with robbers last night, when Elmer Hutchinson's Grain Elevator at Arlington was entered by robbers and the safe ransacked. Valuable papers and $35 in War Saving Stamps belonging to Charles Rucker, were taken. After finishing the job at Arlington, the robbers proceeded to Morristown where the Wolf Grain Company and the Greer-Wilkinson Lumber company were entered, the safe being ransacked at the grain company, but in the lumber company, the safe could not be opened. At Arlington, it is the belief that the robbers committed the theft at midnight, as people heard voices in that vicinity, but thought that someone was bringing stock for early morning shipment.

An automobile track was left at Arlington, and a window was pried open, with a screw driver and chisel. At Morristown the same tools were used in gaining entrances as could be seen by the marks left in the window casing.

Mr. Hutchinson stated that the safe was unlocked at the elevator and the robbers gathered their arms full of valuable papers and the War Saving Stamps. The papers were all found this morning along the banks and in the water, near the covered bridge, just east of Arlington, but the stamps were missing.

At Morristown, the elevator safe was also unlocked last night, but only a small amount of money was left, and it was taken by the robbers. The same automobile track was noticed around the elevator, as the car had a treaded tire.

The Geer-Wilkinson Lumber company was entered by a window, and with the use of the same tools, but here the safe was locked. An attempt was made to enter the safe by knocking off the knobs, but this proved a failure, and the robbers either gave the job up, or were frightened away, as nothing was taken.

Mr. Hutchinson stated today that there was no accurate clue left, and Mr. Rucker an employee at the elevator, was the worst loser.

TRUCK LOAD OF CATTLE DUMPED IN A POND

Motor Vehicle Backs Off Bridge Near Carthage But Only One of Animals is Hurt

THE DRIVER IS NOT INJURED

A large motor truck driven by Harry Nelson, and containing nine head of cattle, backed off of a bridge at the north edge of Carthage Wednesday noon, and all of the cattle were thrown into the pond, a distance of twenty feet below the bridge, one of the cattle receiving a broken leg, and several others being slightly injured.

The accident occurred while the truck was backing up to allow a traction engine to pass, and the truck broke through an end railing, but was not damaged except for the rack, which was demolished. The cattle slipped back into the water, and one barely escaped drowning. They managed to get out of the water and because of the fright, scattered in every direction, and it was necessary to give chase to each one separately.

They were enroute from Carthage to the stock yards in Indianapolis, and the cattle were owned by William Jackson of near Carthage. Harry Nelson, driver of the large motor truck, escaped without injury.

REPORTS CONDITIONS ARE FAVORABLE HERE

Fire Marshal Refers to Fire Hazards in Rushville at Meeting of Indiana Firemen

LOCAL FIRE CHIEF ATTENDS

Fire Chief Joe Williamson has returned home from attending the Indiana Association of Firemen, and reported a big meeting in which much interest was displayed by the firemen, most of whom were chiefs of paid fire departments in the state. State Fire Marshal Friedley was the main speaker yesterday, and discussed fire hazards in various Indiana cities and made a complete report of cities in Indiana that have been inspected by his department within the past few months.

The fire marshal took each city separately and explained certain hazards that existed. He touched upon Rushville as having been recently given a thorough inspection and reported that conditions here were favorable. In speaking of Logansport, he pointed out many things that needed attention, and called particular attention to the fact that at a recent hotel fire in that city, a fire hydrant in the business section of the city was out of use, failing to give pressure to fight the fire with.

Over 350 firemen attended the meeting, and at all sessions the firemen from cities having a population of less than 15,000 scored Governor Goodrich for changing the two platoon system law, which the firemen of the state had looked forward to for many years as becoming a law to govern all paid fire departments.

Anderson was chosen as the next convention city.

POLISH TO OPEN A PEACE PARLEY

Delegates Will Cross Front Saturday and Meet Soviet Delegates to Begin Negotiations

FRANCE AGREES WITH WILSON

Resignation of Pres. Deschanel Imminent as Result of Aggressive Anti-Bolshevik Policy

(By United Press.)

Paris, Aug. 13.—Polish armistice delegates met at the Bolshevik commissary at the front today and agreed upon negotiations, according to advices at the foreign office this afternoon.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The Polish armistice and peace delegates will cross the front tomorrow to meet the Soviet delegates to open negotiations at Minsk, the Polish legation here was advised today in a cable from the foreign minister at Warsaw.

Warsaw, Aug. 13.—France today sent a note to the United States, declaring that it holds the same views with regard to Russia as were expressed by President Wilson in the note to the Italian ambassador. The communication was delivered to Leland Harrison of Illinois, who is charge de affairs and at present the ranking American official in the United States embassy, in Paris. It was handed to him by Morris Paleologue, under secretary of foreign affairs and former French ambassador to Russia.

Harrison and Earl of Derby, representing Britain, had discussed the recognition of the Wrangel anti-Bolshevik government by France.

Resignation of President Deschanel is imminent as the result of France's new and aggressive anti-Bolshevik policy and the consequent diplomatic misunderstanding with great Britain, it was reported today in high political circles. In such an event it was considered likely that Premier Millerand would be elected president and H. Brain appointed premier.

HINES ADDRESSES COUNTY TEACHERS

State Superintendent of Instruction Speaks at Closing Session of Institute Today

EXPLAINS NEW AGE LAW

Resolutions Endorse Measure But Urge Salary Be Made Commensurate With Qualifications

L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction, who came here this morning for the republican rally at the chautauqua, addressed the closing session of the Rush county teachers institute just before noon explaining the new teachers' minimum wage law which was passed by the recent special session of the legislature, and the teachers' pension law.

Just before Supt. Hines address, the institute adopted the resolutions presented by the committee composed of Supt. J. H. Scholl of this city as chairman; W. E. Wagoner, principal of the Arlington school, and Floyd M. Hiner of Carthage.

The resolutions among other things commended the Red Cross for its efforts to obtain a county nurse, suggested the Rush County Teachers' Association not meet this year because the district association session will be held in Rushville and commended the legislature for passing the minimum wage law but recommended adjustment of qualifications for teachers so that the salary will be commensurate with the qualifications.

Supt. Hines did not comment on the minimum wage law, but explained its provisions and said that it would tend to lengthen the terms of Indiana schools and make them more uniform throughout the state. The law will have little effect in this county because with only a few exceptions, teachers will receive $800 or more a year next year.

The resolutions adopted were as follows:

1. We fully appreciate the splendid lectures delivered by our instructors Prof. George D. Wham, Supt. E. J. Llewellyn and Miss Edna Marlatt.

2. We realize the necessity and the value of health education and commend the Red Cross for their efforts to secure a county nurse.

CAR TURNS OVER AT ROAD INTERSECTION

Miss Minnie Klute of Richmond Suffers Broken Collar Bone in Accident at Center

CORN FIELD OBSCURES VIEW

Miss Minnie Klute of Richmond suffered a broken collar bone in an automobile accident at the crossroads at Center Thursday afternoon and the automobile in which she and three other women and a man were riding, was almost demolished when it turned over.

The machine was driven by Fred Klute, also of Richmond, and he sustained minor injuries, but the other women in the car were not hurt. Miss Klute was given first aid treatment by Dr. Bowen of Occident and was taken on to her home yesterday evening.

Mr. Klute was driving west on the pike which runs from Mays to Carthage and was going at a high rate of speed, according to those who witnessed the accident. Bert Bowen son of Dr. Bowen and Charles Adams were driving north on the road intersecting the Mays-Carthage pike. The view of the road was obscured from each driver by a corn field and when Mr. Klute suddenly saw the other car coming toward the road crossing, he pulled sharply to the right to avoid a collision. The car went into a deep rut and as he attempted to bring it back into the center of the road, the machine turned over, smashing the top and damaging it so that it could not be driven farther.

SAYS GOOD WORD FOR SEN. WATSON

Governor of Kentucky Declares His Defeat Would be a Great Loss to Indiana

IS HELD IN GREAT ESTEEM

Gov. Morrow Speaks of Respect For Gov. Coolidge at His Home—Made Notification Speech

"The people of Indiana will make a very great mistake if they do not return Senator James E. Watson to the United States senate," said Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky, who came here today to address a chautauqua audience this afternoon, which was known as republican day.

"Too few people appreciate the sterling worth of Senator Watson. They do not know how hard a worker he really is. They do not realize what a great fellow he is for detail and how he digs into the work of the United States senate and masters every question fully."

"The respect Jim Watson commands in the senate should make every Hoosier proud to be represented by such a man. If he had more dignity, he would probably be recognized as a greater man, but he is human and common, but that does not lessen his ability one whit, nor the value of the service which he is performing for the state of Indiana. It would be a loss from which Indiana would not soon recover, for Jim Watson to be defeated for the senate this fall."

"But I do not think there will be any danger of that, for all the information I get indicates that the good old Hoosier state, our beloved neighbor will go republican again in November."

Governor Morrow arrived shortly before noon over the Pennsylvania and was a guest at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Caldwell. He will be entertained this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Rich Reed and will remain over night with Theodore Reed, returning in the morning at 7:10 over the Pennsylvania.

An informal reception under the direction of the county political organization, was held for the governor in the court house assembly room from two until three o'clock this afternoon. He was scheduled to Continued on Page Six

OPAL COLLINS FILES A SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Claude Collins, Defendant, Accused of Being Intimate With Other Women—Will is Contested

UNDUE INFLUENCE IS ALLEGED

Opal Collins this morning brought suit for divorce from Claude Collins, alleging that he was cruel and abandoned her, and has failed to support and provide for their two year old baby. Mrs. Collins alleges that her husband was guilty of adultery with Stella Edwards of Knightstown during the year 1918 and that he carried on intimate relations with other women, and had contracted a loathsome disease.

The complaint states that they were married in January, 1916 and separated in July of this year, when he left, going to the state of Colorado. She asserts that she has been making her home with her parents, who reside in West Mill street in the town of Carthage, and asks $50 allowance during the pendency of the action, and $5.00 a week support money.

Mary F. Ball is also plaintiff in an action to contest a will, and names as defendants May D. Siler, Edwin K. Alsman and the executor of the will of the late Anna Martha Alsman. The complaint asserts that the will is a pretended will and should be thrown out of court because the deceased was of unsound mind at the time it was made, that she was unduly influenced, and that the will was unduly executed. The amount involved is said to be $4,600.

SENATE APPROVES SUFFRAGE MEASURE

Upper House of Tennessee Legislature Votes in Favor of Ratification Today

HOUSE MAY VOTE TUESDAY

(By United Press.)

Nashville, Tennessee, Aug. 13.—The state senate today approved the federal suffrage amendment. The vote was 25 to 4.

The ratification resolution now goes to the house of representatives where action is expected Tuesday, although a quicker vote may be had. If the house passes the ratification resolution, it will provide the 36 states to ratify the amendment and insure voting by all women in the United States in the November election.

The house has adjourned until Monday so that no action is possible by the lower house before Monday.

The resolution has not been reported out of the committee in the house. The hardest fight on the resolution was predicted in the house of representatives.

The senate majority was much larger than had been expected. At the last moment several senators "climbed on the wagon." "The victory in the Tennessee senate brings up the last lap in the long struggle for the women's enfranchisement," said Miss Sue White, state chairman of the national woman's party.

DISPUTE WITH TAX BOARD ENDS

Shelby County Reviewers Notify Tax Commissioners Today Increases Will be Accepted

ALL NIGHT SESSION IS HELD.

Members of County Board Say They Reached Decision After Carefully Considering Order

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13.—After a conference lasting through most of the night, the Shelby county board of review advised the state tax board today that it had reconsidered its action and will accept the horizontal increases in property valuations as ordered by the tax board.

Members of the board of review said they reached their decision after they had carefully considered the order of the state tax board in all its details.

This ended the controversy between the state and county boards which had its inception in the action of the board of review rejecting the tax commissioners horizontal increases ordered August 23, 1919, which they requested be taken as a property valuation for this year.

Several other counties in the state have rejected the tax board order but a majority of them have accepted.

Those turning it down had been requested to reconsider their action or in some cases the levy on certain property has been boosted to make up the deficit which would result from the county board's action.

Marion County May Follow Suit

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13.—Members of the county board of review met in the county assessor's office today at 10 o'clock on a call issued by Leo K. Fesler, county auditor, to reconsider the action which the board took last Friday in ordering reductions in tax assessments in five of the twelve townships of Marion county.

It was thought probable that the board would rescind its reduction of the assessments in only five of the nine townships in the county, and that whatever action it took would be county-wide. Two courses were open. To approve the horizontal increases ordered by the state board of tax commissioners or to certify back to the state board the original assessments without the horizontal increases.

7:30 p. m. Grand Concert—Garner Jubilee Company.

Today was republican day at the Rush county chautauqua and though it was Friday, the thirteenth, local political leaders were not alarmed and were expecting a monster crowd to hear Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky at the coliseum this afternoon at three o'clock.

The prelude this afternoon was by the Davies Light Opera company, an old favorite here, which will appear in full concert tonight, and tomorrow will be democratic day, with the main address in the afternoon at three o'clock by Henry N. Spaan of Indianapolis, democratic candidate for congress from the seventh district (Marion county). Mr. Spaan will be accompanied by Dr. C. B. McCullough, democratic candidate for governor.

Although the Vissochi Florentine musicians made a wider appeal than any group of entertainers which has been here this year, even greater things are expected of the Crawford Adams company, which is declared to be among the very best on the platform this year. This company will be here Saturday afternoon for a prelude and a full concert at night.

Great things are in store for the closing day, according to present indications, for it is then that Roy L. Smith, whose phenomenal career has centered much attention in him, will lecture. Although thirty-three in years, he is said to be twice his age in experience because of crowding so much into his life. The music will be provided Sunday by the Garner Concert Jubilee company, a sextette of negro singers and entertainers.

CENTER CHURCH IS BEING REMODELED

Frame Structure Will be Brick Veneered and Basement Installed at Cost of $15,000

SLATE ROOF TO BE PUT ON

Repairs and improvements are being made on the Center Christian church, which will make it a modern house of worship, and will cost approximately $15,000.

The church has been raised several feet off the ground and a basement constructed under it. The basement will be made into a dining room and a furnace will also be installed for heating the church. The frame building will be brick veneered and the shingle roof will be replaced by a slate roof.

Extensive improvements will also be made on the interior, including a change in arrangement of the rooms and the church will be entirely redecorated.

Ben Hufferd of Shirley has the contract and has a small force of men employed in doing the work, which was started several weeks ago.

CULLING WORK TO CLOSE NEXT WEEK

Series of Demonstrations Are Announced by County Agent—Their Value Proved

RESULTS IN JONES' FLOCK

Next week will close the culling demonstrations in Rush county, that have been in progress in the different townships for three weeks, the methods being explained by the county agent, D. D. Ball. The results of the culling are being received daily and indicate a successful season.

On August 2, a demonstration was carried on at the Frank P. Jones farm in Jackson township, and the report received today discloses the value of the culling methods, or the weeding out of loafers from a flock of valuable hens. The report showed that of 104 hens tested, 35 were culled, and of these culled no eggs obtained from Monday of this week until today. The week before the test was made Mr. Jones obtained 255 eggs from the 104 hens, and the week following the culling, he received 232 eggs from 69 hens that remained in the flock.

Demonstrations next week will be held as follows: Monday, 10 o'clock, William Reeves and at two o'clock, Ernest Heim, both being in Ripley township; Tuesday, two o'clock at the E. M. Redenbaum farm, near Gowdy; Wednesday, two o'clock at the Alba-Hurst farm in Walker township; Thursday, two o'clock at the Claude Sears farm in Center township and the last demonstration on Friday at two o'clock at the Geo. Hardesty farm in Orange township.

CALLED TO NOBLESVILLE

L. E. Brown to Speak at Chautauqua in Place of Dr. Tindley

The Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main street Christian church of this city, and widely recognized as a platform lecturer, was called today to Noblesville to deliver his lecture, "A Batch of Biscuits", filling an engagement at their chautauqua that was suddenly cancelled by Dr. Charles Tindley, the colored pastor, who appeared at the Rush county chautauqua on Tuesday afternoon of this week. When Dr. Tindley appeared here he stated at the opening of his address that he was in poor health, having been on such a strain during the past ten days, and it is thought that he probably found it necessary to cancel several of his engagements. The Rev. Mr. Brown readily accepted the invitation and left this afternoon for Noblesville. He also appeared last season on the chautauqua platform at Noblesville, and the manager there was highly elated to secure the Rushville man to fill the engagement.

AMUSEMENTS

"Billy" Burke at The Princess

Would you like to be forced to break into the house of your fiancé and get away with the greater part of his jewels, silverware and money? This is what happens to Billie Burke, in an exciting and novel Paramount Arcraft picture, "Away Goes Prudence", which will be shown at the Princess Theatre today.

Miss Burke has the role of a girl mad about flying whose fiancé strives to break her of her pastime by arranging a kidnapping for her. She is forced to live with a gang of thieves and accompanying them on their housebreakings. Josephine Lovett is the author of the original story and Kathrynne Stuar did the continuity, while John S. Robertson, who directed "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde", was the director. A splendid supporting cast is read by Percy Marmont.

Sussue Hayakawa at Mystic

Sussue Hayakawa, the greatest actor of his race and a screen star whose admirers are legion, has in "The Illustrious Prince," a magnificent vehicle for his talents. It will be shown at the Mystic Monday.

"The Illustrious Prince" is a screen dramatization of the book by E. Phillips Oppenheim, which achieved an enormous sale in this country and in England where the scenes of the story are laid. The production, which has received masterly treatment at the hands of Director William Worthington, is released by Robertson-Cole.

The action of the story revolves around the mysterious murder of Count De La Mar. Years before in Japan, De La Mar had fleeced Prince Maiyo's father in a business deal in which many of the latter's friends were involved, and the Japanese had committed hara-kiri. Determined to repay the debt of honor and blood, Prince Maiyo goes to London. There he finds that De La Mar has entangled the Duchess of Devenham in an affair of the heart, and she is about to elope with the Count. De La Mar is murdered in a cab during a dense London fog, and circumstantial evidence found by the police points to the Prince as the murdered. The Duchess has reason to believe that her husband is the murderer. The solution of the mystery is not brought about until the very end of the last reel, and provides suspense and highly colored dramatic situations of unusual character.

The photoplay, settings and lighting effects are superb, the well known London fog coming into its own in a sequence of striking night effects showing London streets shrouded in a vapory mantle. It is during this fog that the murderer of De La Mar is shown jumping from the cab after the murder colliding with a messenger boy on a bicycle, and escaping under cover of the fog.

I Owe My Life to PE-RU-NA

Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:

"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town, throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while playing my trade as auctioneer, it is only natural that I had colds frequently; so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which, through neglect on my part settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but, without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me; so I cannot praise it too highly."

May Reduce Living Costs

While some observers have hastily jumped into print with the prediction that the recent increase in passenger and freight rates granted railroads will increase the cost of living, others who have given the matter thorough consideration believe that ultimately the consumer will be benefited by a substantial reduction in living costs because the car shortage has contributed so much to the excessive cost of the necessities of life.

While it is admitted that there may be a slight increase in living costs as a result of the increased rates, it will be only temporary. But, they reason that when the railroads begin to feel the benefits of the increased revenue and have invested it in improved facilities, the supply of commodities will be more ample and regular with the very natural result that prices will fall and stay down.

One authority on the subject, who was not hasty about giving his opinion on the subject, comments as follows:

The car shortage from which the country is now suffering is directly affecting the price of every article produced. There is scarcely a coal mine but is calling for more cars, and more months has failed to obtain sufficient cars to handle its product. Increased fuel cost has been reflected in the price of every manufactured product. Those products themselves have been piled high in warehouses awaiting transportation to take them to market. There is a shortage in practically every commodity, due directly to the car shortage. With transportation curtailed the law of supply and demand has done the rest. The prices on available supplies have risen, and the people have had to pay.

The decision of the interstate commerce commission stipulates that one-half of one percent of the total income received by the roads, estimated at almost $100,000,000, must be set aside each year for additions and betterments. It required no official command, for the roads are ready and anxious to make heavy investments in new rolling stock and other equipment the moment their credit is improved and funds are at their disposal. The months following the inauguration of the new rates will witness unprecedented activity on the part of car and locomotive builders and producers of other railway supplies, and the efficiency of American transportation will rise just as rapidly as those additional facilities are applied to the railway service.

With the increase in efficiency, over-production at our factories will cease. Stocks now on hand will find their way to market and into the hands of the consumer. Industries will reach and maintain their normal output. Employment will be regulated and stabilized, and shutdowns of manufacturing plants will be a thing of the past. As the rehabilitation of the roads progresses the cost of living will be lowered until a point is reached where the capacity of the roads is sufficient to meet all the demands upon it. Foodstuffs, fuel, and manufactured products—all will feel the change and reflect it in increased supply and more regular distribution, and consequent lessening of price.

Of course inadequate transportation is not the only element that enters into the high cost of living, but it is a natural and very potent one. Most of the others are artificial, which a proper enforcement of the law would eliminate. The moment the department of justice is presided over by an attorney general who thinks less of his political fortunes than he does of the people's welfare we shall see an end of artificial price stimulation. The grant to the railroads by the interstate commerce commission is one of the big factors that insures an early and material reduction in the cost of living.

A bolt of lightning stripped the shoes from a Mississippi woman's feet without as much as even scorching her silk stockings. If they were of the new fangled chicken wire mesh variety we can readily understand why even a bolt of lightning would pass them by.

Lest you forget, there is a presidential election to be pulled off this fall. In the absence of any more effective method of jogging your memory, you might set the old alarm clock to tear off on election morning.

HUSBAND, WIFE AND SISTER PRAISE IT

"We Think It is The Grandest Medicine in The World" Says Ft. Wayne Woman.

"Tanlac certainly has strong friends in my sister-in-law, my husband and myself, for we have been helped so much by taking it we are always recommending it," said Mrs. May Fiegel, 2602 Graham street, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"After taking only three bottles I have gained ten pounds and feel so much better. I am hardly like the same woman. For two years or more I had been in a very nervous, run-down, weakened condition, I had no appetite and could not eat a thing without suffering. I felt tired and worn out all the time, had severe headaches and it was impossible for me to get a good night's sleep.

"My sister-in-law had taken Tanlac with such splendid results I decided to try it myself, and in a short while I had a splendid appetite and could eat most anything I wanted without suffering afterward. I have completely regained my lost strength, that tired worn out feeling is gone and I sleep soundly all night long and get up feeling greatly refreshed.

"My husband had the 'flu' which left him in a badly run-down, weakened condition. He saw how Tanlac was helping me and he decided to try it himself. He improved as much and as quickly as I did and only the other day he said he believed Tanlac was the grandest medicine he ever saw."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2—Adv.

Evansville Young Man Toned Himself up to Equal His Task by Taking Trutona

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 12—Edward C. Piffner, Jr., an Evansville young man who lives at 930 West Michigan Street, realizing that he was not the equal of his position in health, recently began using Trutona. Regarding the benefits he has gained, he says:

"My stomach had been out of shape for some time and my system generally was run-down. I had that tired listless feeling all the time, just seemed to have no 'pep' at all, I can't really express how 'tough' I felt when I began taking Trutona." "But I do know that Trutona has rid me of my stomach trouble. I can eat anything now and it doesn't sour in my stomach, and the dull pains in my limbs and joints have disappeared. I feel 100 percent improved, in every way, since taking the Perfect Tonic. I have the 'pep' now, that I lacked before, and I feel equal to my job now. I'm glad to recommend Trutona."

Trutona is really a medicine of unusual merit. It is unsurpassed as a reconstructive agency, system purifier and body invigorant. Trutona has been declared peerless as a treatment for stomach, liver and bowel troubles.

Trutona is sold in Rushville at Hargrove and Mullin's Drug store. Adv.

It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at druggists everywhere.—(Adv.)

Obituary Joseph D. Willis

Joseph D. Willis, son of Deen and Sallie Willis, was born in Rush county, Indiana, September 20, 1834, near the town of Homer where he spent his boyhood days. In his early manhood he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Woods. To this union were born three children, Jennie, Mary, and Nola Willis. Mary having preceded him in death at the age of seventeen years. Mrs. Willis departed this life on March 24, 1904. In her going away he was often heard to say "I am so lonely". He with his companion were consistent Methodists, until moving into a locality where there was only the Christian Union church, they then joined their influence with this church. "Uncle Joe" as he was familiarly known, was of a quiet disposition, but eminently brotherly. He made acquaintances easily and formed friendships that do not pass away. The fatal disease came upon him without warning, and with a future still beckoning him onward, he fell asleep on July 16, 1920, as one seeking to rest awhile, at the age of 85 years, 9 months, and 16 days.

There are left to mourn his going, one daughter, one son and four grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter. His death is a real loss. We join with those who mourn, and pray God's blessing in comfort, to support those who are bereft by his death. Yet faith and hope in immortality help us to believe that this life will unfold all the more in the great Beyond.

His going away from our midst reminds us of the poet who sang, "A Little Nearer to that City Not Built by Hands". "I cannot say, I will not say, That he is dead, he is just away, Think of him still as the same, I say He is not dead—He is just away".

GREATER INTEREST IN TENNIS THIS YEAR

Rushville Clubs Has 28 Members and Two Courts in City Park Are in Use

PLAYERS OUT EVERY EVENING

Greater interest is being manifested in tennis in Rushville this season than ever before. There are twenty-eight members of the Rushville Tennis club, all of whom are tennis enthusiasts and have been enjoying the game this summer.

At the opening of the season, the club put only one court in condition, but because of the increased interest, another court has been prepared for playing and every evening a large number are out for a few sets.

The following are members of the club, and it is suggested that the names be clipped by players for reference:

Walter E. Smith, Earl Payne, Lloyd T. Nelson, R. C. Hargrove, Paul M. Spivey, John A. Tittsworth, Veri A. Bebout, P. H. Chadwick, Lester A. Coons, H. L. Miller, C. S. Black, Will M. Sparks, Reade Casady, Ralph Payne, Carl L. Gunning, Roy E. Harrold, Glenn D. Ruddell, F. G. Arbuckle, Jack Epstein, John P. Frazee, Jr., Rich Reed, Mary Jane Carr, Walter M. Milady's Gowns "For After Six"

By "MARJORIE"

New York, August, 13—Evening gowns of the fall and winter season seem to promise more scope for individuality than the street and afternoon dresses which so dogmatically declare that slinkiness is absolutely the only silhouette.

It is true that the swathed effect takes title role even in evening gowns, but there are a few exceptions. The very top-notch evening gown—the sort that would be worn at a Blue Bird ball if such a social event should happen all over again, is merely a very few yards of shiny material bound round and round the figure.

Such a model of jet over a fitted underslip of black satin is the piece de resistance of a Fifth Avenue house which specializes in "clothes for after six". Complying with the vogue for some covering over the epidermis, the sleeves of this model are of sheer chiffon and even envelop the wrist. There is no back, but a long train atones for any seeming deficit. A novel note is given by the sash of tulle which floats over the hips and is caught in a wired bow as wide as the entire frock. The streamers of this sash float to the floor. A corsage of deep-toned artificial roses is the only touch of color on the gown.

The more bouffant evening gowns are shown for the debutantes who have not sufficient maturity of bearing and face to wear the Theda-Bara gown. A charming model is shown on The Avenue of dove chiffon over coral satin. Soft bands of deeper-toned marabou finish the top of the bodice and are used for shoulder straps. The Turkish harem effect is retained by the shirred-in skirt hem.

Combinations of net or lace with taffetas and softer silks are much in the vogue for these panniered and puffed soubretish dresses. Bright shades of flame, canary, emerald, and turquoise and peacock blue abound in the debutante gowns, while black laces, nets, jet, and satin are the more mature woman's favorites.

CHARGED WITH KIDNAPPING

Norristown, Pa., Aug. 13—Augusto Pasquale, confessed crank in the Blakley Coughlin kidnapping case, was today charged with kidnapping, extortion and using the mails to defraud, on arraignment here today. Authorities here today expressed fear that Pasquale might die before he could be brought to trial. Pasquale said he had lost thirty pounds since his capture on August 2, and suffered from an incurable disease.

Link Gary Says He'll Get Even With Gillilan

Link Gary, who returned home this morning from Rhinelander, Wisconsin from a visit with his brother, barely missing Strickland Gillilan, who "bawled him out" at the chautauqua Thursday afternoon for not being home after inviting the poet to his house, said this morning that he proposed to send Gillilan a "scorching" letter and tell him that his door was open yesterday that all he needed to do was to walk in.

Gillilan referred to the Rushville man yesterday as "the missing Link" and had a lot of fun out of Link not making good on his invitation.

But Mr. Gary still feels that he has the upper hand in the situation. Some of his friends, thinking they would get "something on" Link, wired him as follows at Rhinelander, "Gillilan is here and your wife has no bread. Wire instructions."

They got a response that Mr. Gary had left for home Thursday evening. Mr. Gary said this morning he thought he would go and pay for the telegram because he thought it was worth the money.

DEATH OF COUPLE ENDS TRAGIC ROMANCE

Bodies of J. Ford Thompson, 48, and Mary Sneeringer, 16, Found Near Emmitsburg, Md.

MISSING SINCE WEDNESDAY

(By United Press.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—The tragic romance of a wealthy man of the world and a country miss was unfolded here today through the investigation of the death of J. Ford Thompson and Mary Sneeringer.

While Washington police spread the report out for the capture of Thompson on charges of abducting the girl, the bodies of the 48-year-old man and the 16-year-old girl were found in the wood near Emmitsburg, Maryland, not far from here. Both had been shot through the head and near the bodies two revolvers were found.

This ended the search which began when the couple after leaving the hotel in Emmitsburg where the girl was a waitress, had failed to return from a stroll Wednesday night. The girl's aunt, who has charge of the hotel, searched in Mary's room and found a note, which vaguely hinted that she was going away but whether it was a hint of murder or a plan of elopement with the wealthy man, could not be determined.

Thompson, who was rich and had nothing to do, met the girl this spring when he moved from Washington to Maryland. He often spoke to his friends about Mary, telling of his plan to educate her. The girl apparently returned his affection.

The relatives of the girl objected to Thompson because of the difference in ages and also because Thompson was married. His wife some years ago obtained a legal separation from him, and is now living in France with her eleven year old child, according to information here.

ainers. They will give a complete concert in the evening.

In the sixteen years history of the Rush county chautauqua, there have been few musical organizations which have been more popular with the audience than were the Vissochi musicians. Vissochi himself, in addition to being an artist extraordinary on the concertina, was a first rate comedian and kept the crowd laughing with his antics while playing.

Vissochi was given the most wonderful reception accorded any entertainer here this year. Both in the afternoon and evening, the audience just would not let him stop. He responded to four or five encores last night. Vissochi had a company of assisting artists which did not need any reflected glory. Miss Taylor, soprano, was especially good. The violinist and pianist and reader also performed splendidly and the company ensemble numbers seemed to have a special appeal for local people.

Dr. Lena K. Sadler, eminent Chicago physician, lectured last night on how to guard against disease, beginning with the small child and showing how they may be spoiled in infancy and allowed by their parents to grow up for lives of ill health.

Dr. Sadler referred frequently to the "little foxies" which nibble at the roots of good health and undermine it. She likened the warnings which nature throws out to the lantern swung across the road warning the motorists of danger ahead.

The lecturer said the great difficulty was that not many people heeded nature's warnings until it was too late. She told the story of one of her patients who scoffed at the idea of being diseased in any way but who was afflicted and was stricken and died within a few months because he refused to live properly.

Dr. Sadler said that one million people were dying needlessly every year and that many of them were being taken off prematurely by old age diseases. Failure to cure minor ailments which result in puss formations that get into the blood stream is responsible for this situation, Dr. Sadler said.

"Feed the baby by the clock and not by the squawk," admonished the speaker in urging regularity of habits not only for the baby but for grownups as well. She also impressed on parents the necessity of teaching children self control while young so that they will know how to live.

"Most of you people are eating your way into the grave as fast as you can," Dr. Sadler stated, pointing out that more temperate habits will lengthen life.

She declared that every person should get a health audit frequently to learn if they are physically unfit and correct the defects if there are any. Dr. Sadler also warned against fear and worry because they contribute so much to ill health.

3. We commend the recent action of the legislature in raising the minimum wage for teachers. We are also in favor of the legislature adjusting the qualifications of the teachers so that the salary will be commensurate with the qualifications.

4. We favor the plan of holding the Rush county institute in connection with the Rush county chautauqua.

5. We favor an equitable pension law for the teachers of Indiana.

6. Since the Sixth District Educational Association will meet at Rushville this year, we suggest that the Rush County Teachers' Association not hold its session this year, but give loyal support to the district association.

HEARS THE REMONSTRANCES

State Tax Commissioner Here Today for Reddenbaugh Petition

Mr. Tillman, a representative from the state tax commissioners, was here this morning and heard the remonstrators against the building the William Reddenbaugh road in Orange township. The contract for the road was awarded to C. E. Reddington a few months ago, and the bond issue has been previously approved by the commissioners, but several people living in the township petitioned the state tax commission direct, asking that their remonstrance be heard. Both sides were heard this morning by Mr. Tillman, and the matter will be taken up by the state board and a decision rendered in the near future.

VENIZELOS BETTER

Paris, Aug. 13.—The assassin's bullet which split the shoulder blade of Premier Venizelos of Greece into four pieces, was removed today. The operation was declared successful. After the operation it was said the premier's condition was satisfactory but that rest was absolutely necessary. He had a good night. The bullet was removed by means of radiograph.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

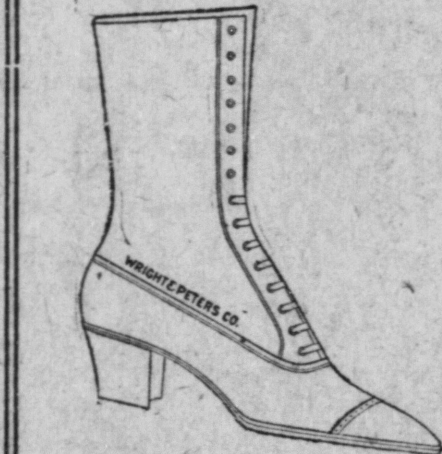

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

GILLILAN DIVIDES HUMOR IN CLASSES

Chautauqua Lecturer Says Stories May be Classified And He Illustrated Some

KEEPS AUDIENCE IN UPROAR

Jokes Resulting From Absent-Mindedness are Related—Children's Humor Cleanest

Strickland Gillilan, poet and humorist, depicting the various kinds of humor in existence, taking each one in a separate manner, kept the audience at the chautauqua yesterday afternoon in an uproar spell bound with laughter, both by his comical recitations and his eloquence of delivering the funny stories.

From the very first moment that he landed on the platform until he had told the story of his little boy at home, the audience was kept in a roar and regretted that he was not on the program for a second appearance.

Mr. Gillilan explained throughout his lecture that there were many kinds of humor, including the every day stories, and stories from life, economic environment, children's humor stories that are often times caused from gloom and sadness, and humor derived from absent mindedness.

The orator first made it known that the best way to get rid of gloom and melancholy is to bury them, and when the tide goes the other way, to dig them up, and see how funny they appear. It was his business, he said, throughout life to distribute cheer, and that he was a great appreciator of humor.

He related about an accident at a crossing, where an automobile had been struck by a train, with several dead bodies thrown around on the ground, and the only surviving member, almost ready to die. A Jew came along and seeing what was left of the auto party, inquired of the man who was dying what had happened, and asked him a number of questions, during which time the man became worse and worse. The Jew asked, "Has the claim agent been around yet?", to which the man replied that he hadn't. The Jew then asked if it would be alright with him, if he lay down beside him.

Absent mindedness often times causes much humor, according to Mr. Gillilan and he depicted many instances in which through absent mindedness and forgetfulness, some good jokes had resulted.

In closing his lecture, he said that probably no cleaner and better humor is made, than is unconsciously spoken by children. He told about his own little boy, who had a hobby of collecting turtles, and when on one occasion the boy was dangerously ill he told his father that when he grew up he wanted to be a turtle.

When asked why he wanted to be a turtle, the small boy replied that when he got sick, all he had to do was to draw his head in and look around, and see what was the matter with him.

INDIANA MAN FOR ATHLETIC COACH

Ralph Jones, Formerly of Wabash and Purdue, Takes Place This Year With Lake Forest College

AN ALL AROUND ATHLETE

First Started in Basketball Coaching but Later Developed Into an Athletic Director

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Indianapolis, Ind. Aug. 13—Ralph Jones will be the athletic director at Lake Forest University, Lake Forest, Ill., according to an official announcement of the athletic board of that school.

The selection of Jones as athletic director at Lake Forest is another honor won by a Hoosier. Jones is an Indiana man who has made good at athletics, and it has been an up-hill fight.

Jones is well known to high school teachers and basket ball coaches in all parts of Indiana for the reason he established a school for basket-ball coaches at Illinois. This school was attended by many men from the high schools of Indiana and Jones' style of play is in evidence among the high school quintets in all parts of the state.

Twenty years ago Jones, just graduated from Shortridge high school in Indianapolis, signed a contract to coach basketball at that school. Basketball had been invented only about eight years at the time Jones started to coach, but he had played the game from the first time a team was organized in the Indianapolis Y. M. C. A.

The husky little coach saw a bright future in athletics, and he went to Crawfordsville where for one year he directed that famous Y. M. C. A. quintet of that city. Then Jones went to Rochester, Ind., where he organized and coached an independent basketball team. Not until Jones was at Rochester was that city heard of in basketball, but since that time Rochester has always taken first rank among the

Get More Service for the Money in Goodyear Tires

Time after time the buyer of a tire sold at a sensationally low price is a big loser; true tire economy is a matter of low-cost mileage and not of tires made to sell at a few dollars each.

In Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3, 30x3½, and 31x4-inch sizes, the user secures the high relative value always produced by the world's largest maker of automobile tires.

In these tires you have assurance of exceptional service for every dollar of original cost because Goodyear-selected materials and Goodyear skill have been combined in their manufacture.

GUNN HAYDON

northern Indiana cities in the great indoor game.

Crawfordsville basketball fans watched Jones' success at Rochester with interest. Jones returned as athletic director of the Y. M. C. A. there and also basketball coach at Wabash college.

In those days, Wabash College proved unbeatable. Columbia University and Yale, the best college fives in the east, were trounced by Jones' team, Wabash defeated Purdue, walked away with Indiana, and found the other college teams easy except on one occasion when Rose Poly won a surprise game.

Jones branched out. He had a broad knowledge of how to train track and field athletes, and he knew base ball and played it. Wabash college officials chose him as the athletic director. He was successful in all branches except football, and was fairly successful in the gridiron sport.

Then Purdue University offered more money to Jones, and he went to Lafayette to coach the basketball and track team, and to act as assistant coach in football and baseball.

Jones' success again caused him to be offered more money and this time it was Illinois University that wanted him.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

Newcastle, Ind., Aug. 13.—Charles N. Sweet, who is now living in Rushville, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of speeding on East Broad street yesterday afternoon and was fined $1 and costs. Sweet, in a most agreeable manner, agreed that he was probably exceeding the speed limit and stated that he was ready to "take his medicine." He has been driving a Ford jitney between the city and the fair grounds. He asked the mayor to be lenient with him since, he said, he did not have a large bankroll. He was arrested yesterday afternoon when going twenty-seven miles an hour on East Broad street.

Garden Beauty Most Anyone Can Afford

Look about as you walk or drive through a residential district and note the attractive places. It isn't the "finest" homes by any means that catch your eye. More often it is the well kept yard, the shrubbery, the trimmed trees and flower beds.

And then when you see in combination with these, a neat fence, an arbor, a pergola and a bird house—you exclaim: "What a picture."

The wonder of it is that more folks don't have these tasty little garden features. There's nothing cooler and better looking. And the cost! You'll be surprised how reasonable it is.

We'll take just as much interest in supplying you with the lumber for these little improvements as if you were buying materials for a house. We can make some interesting suggestions.

Milkoline! At 2c a Gallon

Milkoline has a base of pasteurized and sterilized, modified Buttermilk. It is guaranteed not to contain any sulphuric acid or anything of an injurious nature to hogs or poultry.

Aids Digestion: Thousands of the most successful hog raisers from New York to California during the past seven years have proved that Milkoline helps and assists digestion, tending to insure perfect assimilation of feed. It helps tone up the system so that hogs are less subject to disease, and practically insures gains of 2½ pounds per head per day.

University Tested: Professor W. B. Combs while Asst. Prof. of Dairy Husbandry at Missouri University conducted a scientific test on Milkoline and found that Milkoline fed hogs put on more weight and showed 82.5% more profit than hogs not fed Milkoline. W. H. Graham a successful feeder of Middletown, Mo., said $80 worth of Milkoline made him an extra profit of $220. Lee Jackson of Wappingers Falls, N. Y., says Milkoline fixed up a bunch of shoats in fine style and is great for brood sows.

Can't Spoil: Milkoline is guaranteed not to rot, sour or mold. It will keep indefinitely in any climate. Pies do not come near it. It is always uniform, and is guaranteed to make you money or it doesn't cost you anything.

ROBBERS VISIT TWO SMALL TOWNS

Enter Hutchinson's Grain Elevator at Arlington And Steal $35 Worth of War Stamps

BELONGED TO C. RUCKER.

Also Break Into Elevator and Lumber Company Offices at Morristown—Get Small Sum of Money

Rush county was again visited with robbers last night, when Elmer Hutchinson's Grain Elevator at Arlington was entered by robbers and the safe raffled. Valuable papers and $35 in War Saving Stamps belonging to Charles Rucker, were taken. After finishing the job at Arlington, the robbers proceeded to Morristown where the Wolf Grain Company and the Greer-Wilkinson Lumber company were entered, the safe being ransacked at the grain company, but in the lumber company, the safe could not be opened.

At Arlington, it is the belief that the robbers committed the theft at midnight, as people heard voices in that vicinity, but thought that someone was bringing stock for early morning shipment.

An automobile track was left at Arlington, and a window was pried open, with a screw driver and chisel. At Morristown the same tools were used in gaining entrances as could be seen by the marks left in the window casing.

Mr. Hutchinson stated that the safe was unlocked at the elevator and the robbers gathered their arms full of valuable papers and the War Saving Stamps. The papers were all found this morning along the banks and in the water, near the covered bridge, just east of Arlington, but the stamps were missing.

At Morristown, the elevator safe was also unlocked last night, but only a small amount of money was left, and it was taken by the robbers. The same automobile track was noticed around the elevator, as the car had a treaded tire.

The Greer-Wilkinson Lumber company was entered by a window, and with the use of the same tools, but here the safe was locked. An attempt was made to enter the safe by knocking off the knobs, but this proved a failure, and the robbers either gave the job up, or were frightened away, as nothing was taken.

Mr. Hutchinson stated today that there was no accurate clue left, and Mr. Rucker an employe at the elevator, was the worst loser.

TRUCK LOAD OF CATTLE DUMPED IN A POND

Motor Vehicle Backs Off Bridge Near Carthage But Only One of Animals Is Hurt

THE DRIVER IS NOT INJURED

A large motor truck driven by Harry Nelson, and containing nine head of cattle, backed off of a bridge at the north edge of Carthage Wednesday noon, and all of the cattle were thrown into the pond, a distance of twenty feet below the bridge, one of the cattle receiving a broken leg, and several others being slightly injured.

The accident occurred while the truck was backing up to allow a traction engine to pass, and the truck broke through an end railing, but was not damaged except for the rack, which was demolished. The cattle slipped back into the water, and one barely escaped drowning. They managed to get out of the water and because of the fright, scattered in every direction, and it was necessary to give chase to each one separately.

They were enroute from Carthage to the stock yards in Indianapolis, and the cattle were owned by William Jackson of near Carthage. Harry Nelson, driver of the large motor truck, escaped without injury.

REPORTS CONDITIONS ARE FAVORABLE HERE

Fire Marshal Refers to Fire Hazards in Rushville at Meeting of Indiana Firemen

LOCAL FIRE CHIEF ATTENDS

Fire Chief Joe Williamson has returned home from attending the Indiana Association of Firemen, and reported a big meeting in which much interest was displayed by the firemen, most of whom were chiefs of paid fire departments in the state. State Fire Marshal Friedley was the main speaker yesterday, and discussed fire hazards in various Indiana cities and made a complete report of cities in Indiana that have been inspected by his department within the past few months.

The fire marshal took each city separately and explained certain hazards that existed. He touched upon Rushville as having been recently given a thorough inspection and reported that conditions here were favorable. In speaking of Logansport, he pointed out many things that needed attention, and called particular attention to the fact that at a recent hotel fire in that city, a fire hydrant in the business section of the city was out of use, failing to give pressure to fight the fire with.

Over 350 firemen attended the meeting, and at all sessions the firemen from cities having a population of less than 15,000 scored Governor Goodrich for changing the two platoon system law, which the firemen of the state had looked forward to for many years as becoming a law to govern all paid fire departments. Anderson was chosen as the next convention city.

POLISH TO OPEN A PEACE PARLEY

Delegates Will Cross Front Saturday and Meet Soviet Delegates to Begin Negotiations

FRANCE AGREES WITH WILSON

Resignation of Pres. Deschanel Imminent as Result of Aggressive Anti-Bolshevik Policy

(By United Press.)

Paris, Aug. 13.—Polish armistice delegates met at the Bolshevik commissary at the front today and agreed upon negotiations, according to advices at the foreign office this afternoon.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The Polish armistice and peace delegates will cross the front tomorrow to meet the Soviet delegates to open negotiations at Minsk, the Polish legation here was advised today in a cable from the foreign minister at Warsaw.

Warsaw, Aug. 13.—France today sent a note to the United States, declaring that it holds the same views with regard to Russia as were expressed by President Wilson in the note to the Italian ambassador.

The communication was delivered to Leland Harrison of Illinois, who is charge of affairs and at present the ranking American official in the United States embassy, in Paris. It was handed to him by Morris Paleologue, under secretary of foreign affairs and former French ambassador to Russia.

Harrison and Earl of Derby, representing Britain, had discussed the recognition of the Wrangel anti-Bolshevik government by France.

Resignation of President Deschanel is imminent as the result of France's new and aggressive anti-Bolshevik policy and the consequent diplomatic misunderstanding with Great Britain, it was reported today in high political circles. In such an event it was considered likely that Premier Millerand would be elected president and H. Brain appointed premier.

HINES ADDRESSES COUNTY TEACHERS

State Superintendent of Instruction Speaks at Closing Session of Institute Today

EXPLAINS NEW AGE LAW

Resolutions Endorse Measure But Urge Salary Be Made Commensurate With Qualifications

L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction, who came here this morning for the republican rally at the chautauqua, addressed the closing session of the Rush county teachers institute just before noon explaining the new teachers' minimum wage law which was passed by the recent special session of the legislature, and the teachers' pension law.

Just before Supt. Hines address, the institute adopted the resolutions presented by the committee composed of Supt. J. H. Scholl of this city as chairman; W. E. Wagoner, principal of the Arlington school, and Floyd M. Hiner of Carthage.

The resolutions among other things commended the Red Cross for its efforts to obtain a county nurse, suggested the Rush County Teachers' Association not meet this year because the district association session will be held in Rushville and commended the legislature for passing the minimum wage law but recommended adjustment of qualifications for teachers so that the salary will be commensurate with the qualifications.

Supt. Hines did not comment on the minimum wage law, but explained its provisions and said that it would tend to lengthen the terms of Indiana schools and make them more uniform throughout the state. The law will have little effect in this county because with only a few exceptions, teachers will receive $800 or more a year next year.

The resolutions adopted were as follows:

1. We fully appreciate the splendid lectures delivered by our instructors Prof. George D. Wham, Supt. E. J. Llewellyn and Miss Edna Marlatt.
2. We realize the necessity and the value of health education and commend the Red Cross for their efforts to secure a county nurse.

CAR TURNS OVER AT ROAD INTERSECTION

Miss Minnie Klute of Richmond Suffers Broken Collar Bone in Accident at Center

CORN FIELD OBSCURES VIEW

Miss Minnie Klute of Richmond suffered a broken collar bone in an automobile accident at the crossroads at Center Thursday afternoon and the automobile in which she and three other women and a man were riding, was almost demolished when it turned over.

The machine was driven by Fred Klute, also of Richmond, and he sustained minor injuries, but the other women in the car were not hurt. Miss Klute was given first aid treatment by Dr. Bowen of Occident and was taken on to her home yesterday evening.

Mr. Klute was driving west on the pike which runs from Mays to Carthage and was going at a high rate of speed, according to those who witnessed the accident. Bert Bowen son of Dr. Bowen and Charles Adams were driving north on the road intersecting the Mays-Carthage pike. The view of the road was obscured from each driver by a corn field and when Mr. Klute suddenly saw the other car coming toward the road crossing, he pulled sharply to the right to avoid a collision. The car went into a deep rut and as he attempted to bring it back into the center of the road, the machine turned over, smashing the top and damaging it so that it could not be driven further.

SAYS GOOD WORD FOR SEN. WATSON

Governor of Kentucky Declares His Defeat Would be a Great Loss to Indiana

IS HELD, IN GREAT ESTEEM

Gov. Morrow Speaks of Respect For Gov. Coolidge at His Home—Made Notification Speech

"The people of Indiana will make a very great mistake if they do not return Senator James E. Watson to the United States senate," said Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky, who came here today to address a chautauqua audience this afternoon, which was known as republican day.

"Too few people appreciate the sterling worth of Senator Watson. They do not know how hard a worker he really is. They do not realize what a great fellow he is for detail and how he digs into the work of the United States senate and masters every question fully."

"The respect Jim Watson commands in the senate should make every Hoosier proud to be represented by such a man. If he had more dignity, he would probably be recognized as a greater man, but he is human and common, but that does not lessen his ability one whit, nor the value of the service which he is performing for the state of Indiana. It would be a loss from which Indiana would not soon recover, for Jim Watson to be defeated for the senate this fall."

"But I do not think there will be any danger of that, for all the information I get indicates that the good old Hoosier state, our beloved neighbor will go republican again in November."

Governor Morrow arrived shortly before noon over the Pennsylvania and was a guest at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Caldwell. He will be entertained this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Rich Reed and will remain over night with Theodore Reed, returning in the morning at 7:10 over the Pennsylvania.

An informal reception under the direction of the county political organization, was held for the governor in the court house assembly room from two until three o'clock this afternoon. He was scheduled to

OPAL COLLINS FILES A SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Claude Collins, Defendant, Accused of Being Intimate With Other Women—Will Is Contested

UNDUE INFLUENCE IS ALLEGED

Opal Collins this morning brought suit for divorce from Claude Collins, alleging that he was cruel, and abandoned her, and has failed to support and provide for their two year old baby. Mrs. Collins alleges that her husband was guilty of adultery with Stella Edwards of Knightstown during the year 1918 and that he carried on intimate relations with other women, and had contracted a loathsome disease.

The complaint states that they were married in January, 1916 and separated in July of this year, when he left going to the state of Colorado. She asserts that she has been making her home with her parents, who reside in West Mill street in the town of Carthage, and asks $50 allowance during the pendency of the action, and $5.00 a week support money.

Mary F. Ball is also plaintiff in an action to contest a will, and names as defendants May D. Shier, Edwin K. Alzman and the executor of the will of the late Anna Martha Alzman. The complaint asserts that the will is a pretended will and should be thrown out of court because the deceased was of unsound mind at the time it was made, that she was unduly influenced, and that the will was unduly executed. The amount involved is said to be $4,600.

SENATE APPROVES SUFFRAGE MEASURE

Upper House of Tennessee Legislature Votes in Favor of Ratification Today

HOUSE MAY VOTE TUESDAY

(By United Press.)

Nashville, Tennessee, Aug. 13.—The state senate today approved the federal suffrage amendment. The vote was 25 to 4.

The ratification resolution now goes to the house of representatives where action is expected Tuesday, although a quicker vote may be had. If the house passes the ratification resolution, it will provide the 36 states to ratify the amendment and insure voting by all women in the United States in the November election.

The house has adjourned until Monday so that no action is possible by the lower house before Monday.

The resolution has not been reported out of the committee in the house. The hardest fight on the resolution was predicted in the house of representatives.

The senate majority was much larger than had been expected. At the last moment, several senators "climbed on the wagon." "The victory in the Tennessee senate brings up the last lap in the long struggle for the woman's enfranchisement," said Miss Sue White, state chairman of the national woman's party.

DISPUTE WITH TAX BOARD ENDS

Shelby County Reviewers Notify Tax Commissioners Today Increases Will be Accepted

ALL NIGHT SESSION IS HELD.

Members of County Board Say They Reached Decision After Carefully Considering Order

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13.—After a conference lasting through most of the night, the Shelby county board of review advised the state tax board today that it had reconsidered its action and will accept the horizontal increases in property valuations as ordered by the tax board.

Members of the board of review said they reached their decision after they had carefully considered the order of the state tax board in all its details.

This ended the controversy between the state and county boards which had its inception in the action of the board of review rejecting the tax commissioners horizontal increases ordered August 23, 1919, which they requested be taken as a property valuation for this year.

Several other counties in the state have rejected the tax board order but a majority of them have accepted.

Those turning it down had been requested to reconsider their action or in some cases the levy on certain property has been boosted to make up the deficit which would result from the county board's action.

Marion County May Follow Suit

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13.—Members of the county board of review met in the county assessor's office today at 10 o'clock on a call issued by Leo K. Fesler, county auditor, to reconsider the action which the board took last Friday in ordering reductions in tax assessments in five of the twelve townships of Marion county.

It was thought probable that the board would rescind its reduction of the assessments in only five of the nine townships in the county, and that whatever action it took would be county-wide. Two courses were open. To approve the horizontal increases ordered by the state board of tax commissioners or to certify back to the state board the original assessments without the horizontal increases.

7:30 p. m. Grand Concert—Garner Jubilee Company.

Today was republican day at the Rush county chautauqua and though it was Friday, the thirteenth, local political leaders were not alarmed and were expecting a monster crowd to hear Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky at the coliseum this afternoon at three o'clock.

The prelude this afternoon was by the Davies Light Opera company, an old favorite here, which will appear in full concert tonight, and tomorrow will be democratic day, with the main address in the afternoon at three o'clock by Henry N. Spaan of Indianapolis, democratic candidate for congress from the seventh district (Marion county). Mr. Spaan will be accompanied by Dr. C. B. McCullough, democratic candidate for governor.

Although the Vissochi Florentine musicians made a wider appeal than any group of entertainers which has been here this year, even greater things are expected of the Crawford Adams company, which is declared to be among the very best on the platform this year. This company will be here Saturday afternoon for a prelude and a full concert at night.

Great things are in store for the closing day, according to present indications, for it is then that Roy L. Smith, whose phenomenal career has centered much attention in him, will lecture. Although thirty-three in years, he is said to be twice his age in experience because of crowding so much into his life. The music will be provided Sunday by the Garner Concert Jubilee company, a sextette of negro singers and entertainers.

CENTER CHURCH IS BEING REMODELED

Frame Structure Will be Brick Veneered and Basement Installed at Cost of $15,000

SLATE ROOF TO BE PUT ON

Repairs and improvements are being made on the Center Christian church, which will made it a modern house of worship, and will cost approximately $15,000.

The church has been raised several feet off the ground and a basement constructed under it. The basement will be made into a dining room and a furnace will also be installed for heating the church. The frame building will be brick veneered and the shingle roof will be replaced by a slate roof.

Extensive improvements will also be made on the interior, including a change in arrangement of the rooms and the church will be entirely redecorated.
Ben Hafford of Shirley has the contract and has a small force of men employed in doing the work, which was started several weeks ago.

CULLING WORK TO CLOSE NEXT WEEK

Series of Demonstrations Are Announced by County Agent—Their Value Proved

RESULTS IN JONES' FLOCK

Next week will close the culling demonstrations in Rush county, that have been in progress in the different townships for three weeks, the methods being explained by the county agent, D. D. Ball. The results of the culling are being received daily and indicate a successful season.

On August 2, a demonstration was carried on at the Frank P. Jones farm in Jackson township, and the report received today discloses the value of the culling methods, or the weeding out of loafers from a flock of valuable hens. The report showed that of 104 hens tested, 35 were culled, and of these culled no eggs obtained from Monday of this week until today. The week before the test was made Mr. Jones obtained 255 eggs from the 104 hens, and the week following the culling, he received 232 eggs from 69 hens that remained in the flock.

Demonstrations next week will be held as follows: Monday, 10 o'clock, William Reeves and at two o'clock, Ernest Heim, both being in Ripley township; Tuesday, two o'clock at the E. M. Redenbaum farm, near Gowdy; Wednesday, two o'clock at the Alha Hurst farm in Walker township; Thursday, two o'clock at the Claude Sears farm in Center township and the last demonstration on Friday at two o'clock at the Ggo. Hardesty farm in Orange township.

CALLED TO NOBLESVILLE

L. E. Brown to Speak at Chautauqua in Place of Dr. Tindley

The Rev. L. E. Brown, pastor of the Main street Christian church of this city, and widely recognized as a platform lecturer, was called today to Noblesville to deliver his lecture, "A Batch of Biscuits", filling an engagement at their chautauqua that was suddenly cancelled by Dr. Charles Tindley, the colored pastor, who appeared at the Rush county chautauqua on Tuesday afternoon of this week. When Dr. Tindley appeared here he stated at the opening of his address that he was in poor health, having been on such a strain during the past ten days, and it is thought that he probably found it necessary to cancel several of his engagements. The Rev. Mr. Brown readily accepted the invitation and left this afternoon for Noblesville. He also appeared last season on the chautauqua platform at Noblesville, and the manager there was highly elated to secure the Rushville man to fill the engagement.

AMUSEMENTS

"Billy" Burke at The Princess

Would you like to be forced to break into the house of your fiancée and get away with the greater part of her jewelry, silverware and money? This is what happens to Billie Burke in an exciting and novel Paramount Afterdark picture, "Away Goes Prudence", which will be shown at the Princess Theatre today.

Miss Burke has the role of a girl man about town whose fiancée strives to break her of her pastime by arranging a kidnapping for her. She is forced to live with a gang of thieves and accompanying them on their housebreakings. Josephine Lovett is the author of the original story and Katharine Stuar did the continuity, while John S. Robertson, who directed "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde", was the director. A splendid supporting cast is headed by Percy Marmont.

Sessue Hayakawa at Mystic

Sessue Hayakawa, the greatest actor of his race and a screen star whose admirers are legion, has in "The Illustrious Prince", a magnificent vehicle for his talents. It will be shown at the Mystic Monday. "The Illustrious Prince" is a screen dramatization of the book by E. Phillips Oppenheim, which achieved an enormous sale in this country and in England where the scenes of the story are laid. The production, which has received masterly treatment at the hands of Director William Worthington, is released by Robertson-Cole.

The action of the story revolves around the mysterious murder of Count De La Mar. Years before in Japan, De La Mar had fleeced Prince Maiyo's father in a business deal in which many of the latter's friends were involved, and the Japanese had committed hara-kiri. Determined to repay the debt of honor and blood, Prince Maiyo goes to London. There he finds that De La Mar has entangled the Duchess of Devenham in an affair of the heart, and she is about to elope with the Count. De La Mar is murdered in a cab during a dense London fog, and circumstantial evidence found by the police points to the Prince as the murdered. The Duchess has reason to believe that her husband is the murderer. The solution of the mystery is not brought about until the very end of the last reel, and provides suspense and highly colored dramatic situations of unusual character. The photoplay, settings and lighting effects are superb, the well known London fog coming into its own in a sequence of striking night effects showing London streets shrouded in a vapory mantle. It is during this fog that the murderer of De La Mar is shown jumping from the cab after the murder colliding with a messenger boy on a bicycle, and escaping under cover of the fog.

I Owe My Life to PE-RU-NA
Mr. McKinley's letter brings cheer to all who may be sufferers as he was. Read it:
"I can honestly say that I owe my life to Peruna. After some of the best doctors in the country gave me up and told me I could not live another month, Peruna saved me. Travelling from town to town throughout the country and having to go into all kinds of badly heated stores and buildings, sometimes standing up for hours at a time while trying my trade as auctioneer, it is only natural that I had colds frequently, so when this would occur I paid little attention to it, until last December when I contracted a severe case, which, through neglect on my part, settled on my lungs. When almost too late, I began doctoring, but without avail, until I heard of Peruna. It cured me; so I cannot praise it too highly."

May Reduce Living Costs

While some observers have hastily jumped into print with the prediction that the recent increase in passenger and freight rates granted railroads will increase the cost of living, others who have given the matter thorough consideration believe that ultimately the consumer will be benefited by a substantial reduction in living costs because the car shortage has contributed so much to the excessive cost of the necessities of life.

While it is admitted that there may be a slight increase in living costs as a result of the increased rates, it will be only temporary. But, they reason that when the railroads begin to feel the benefits of the increased revenue and have invested it in improved facilities, the supply of commodities will be more ample and regular with the very natural result that prices will fall and stay down.

One authority on the subject, who was not hasty about giving his opinion on the subject, comments as follows:

The car shortage from which the country is now suffering is directly affecting the price of every article produced. There is scarcely a coal mine but is calling for more cars, and more months has failed to obtain sufficient cars to handle its product. Increased fuel cost has been reflected in the price of every manufactured product. Those products themselves have been piled high in warehouses awaiting transportation to take them to market. There is a shortage in practically every commodity, due directly to the car shortage. With transportation curtailed the law of supply and demand has done the rest. The prices on available supplies have risen, and the people have had to pay.

The decision of the interstate commerce commission stipulates that one-half of one percent of the total income received by the roads, estimated at almost $100,000,000, must be set aside each year for additions and betterments. It required no official command, for the roads are ready and anxious to make heavy investments in new rolling stock and other equipment the moment their credit is improved and funds are at their disposal. The months following the inauguration of the new rates will witness unprecedented activity on the part of car and locomotive builders and producers of other railway supplies, and the efficiency of American transportation will rise just as rapidly as those additional facilities are applied to the railway service.

With the increase in efficiency, over-production at our factories will cease. Stocks now on hand will find their way to market and into the hands of the consumer. Industries will reach and maintain their normal output. Employment will be regulated and stabilized, and shutdowns of manufacturing plants will be a thing of the past. As the rehabilitation of the roads progresses the cost of living will be lowered until a point is reached where the capacity of the roads is sufficient to meet all the demands upon it. Foodstuffs, fuel, and manufactured products—all will feel the change and reflect it in increased supply and more regular distribution, and consequent lessening of price.

Of course inadequate transportation is not the only element that enters into the high cost of living, but it is a natural and very potent one. Most of the others are artificial, which a proper enforcement of the law would eliminate. The moment the department of justice is presided over by an attorney general who thinks less of his political fortunes than he does of the people's welfare we shall see an end of artificial price stimulation. The grant to the railroads by the interstate commerce commission is one of the big factors that insures an early and material reduction in the cost of living.

A bolt of lightning stripped the shoes from a Mississippi woman's feet without as much as even scorching her silk stockings. If they were of the new fangled chicken wire mesh variety we can readily understand why even a bolt of lightning would pass them by.

Lest you forget, there is a presidential election to be pulled off this fall. In the absence of any more effective method of jogging your memory, you might set the old alarm clock to tear off on election morning.

HUSBAND, WIFE AND SISTER PRAISE IT

"We Think It Is The Grandest Medicine In The World" Says Ft. Wayne Woman.

"Tanlac certainly has strong friends in my sister-in-law, my husband and myself, for we have been helped so much by taking it we are always recommending it," said Mrs. May Fiegel, 2602 Graham street, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"After taking only three bottles I have gained ten pounds and feel so much better I am hardly like the same woman. For two years or more I had been in a very nervous, run-down, weakened condition, I had no appetite and could not eat a thing without suffering. I felt tired and worn out all the time, had severe headaches and it was impossible for me to get a good night's sleep.

"My sister-in-law had taken Tanlac with such splendid results I decided to try it myself, and in a short while I had a splendid appetite and could eat most anything I wanted without suffering afterward. I have completely regained my lost strength, that tired worn out feeling is gone and I sleep soundly all night long and get up feeling greatly refreshed.

"My husband had the 'flu' which left him in a badly run-down, weakened condition. He saw how Tanlac was helping me and he decided to try it himself. He improved as much and as quickly as I did and only the other day he said he believed Tanlac was the grandest medicine he ever saw."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dallas Copper, in Manilla by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty, and in New Salem by Mrs. Jos. Hankins, R. R. 2—Adv.

Had The Youth But Was Lacking In Needed Vim

Evansville Young Man Toned Himself up to Equal His Task by Taking Trutona

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 12—Edward C. Piffer, Jr., an Evansville young man who lives at 830 West Michigan Street, realizing that he was not the equal of his position in health, recently began using Trutona. Regarding the benefits he has gained, he says:

"My stomach had been out of shape for some time and my system generally was run-down. I had that tired listless feeling all the time, just seemed to have no 'pep' at all. I can't really express how 'tough' I felt when I began taking Trutona. But I do know that Trutona has rid me of my stomach trouble. I can eat anything now and it doesn't sour in my stomach and the dull pains in my limbs and joints have disappeared. I feel 100 percent improved, in every way, since taking the Perfect Tonic. I have the 'pep' now, that I lacked before, and I feel equal to my job nowadays. I'm glad to recommend Trutona."

Trutona is really a medicine of angelic merit. It is unsurpassed as a reconstructive, nervous system purifier and body invigorant. Trutona has been declared 'peerless' as a treatment for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Trutona is sold in Rushville at Hargrove and Mays Drug store. Adv.

Wotorman Not Losing Any Time

"I don't think anyone ever suffered more from stomach trouble and bloating than I have. I had to lay off my run more than half the time and could get no help from prescriptions or medicine. One of my friends advised using Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which I found to be the greatest remedy ever put on earth. I have not lost a day since taking it. It is worth its weight in gold." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at druggists everywhere.—(Adv.)

Obituary

Joseph D. Willis

Joseph D. Willis, son of Deen and Sallie Willis, was born in Rush county, Indiana, September 20, 1834, near the town of Homer where he spent his boyhood days. In his early manhood he was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Woods. To this union were born three children, Jennie, Mary, and Nola Willis. Mary having preceded him in death at the age of seventeen years. Mrs. Willis departed this life on March 24, 1904. In her going away he was often heard to say "I am so lonely". He with his companion were consistent Methodists, until moving into a locality where there was only the Christian Union church, they then joined their influence with this church. "Uncle Joe" as he was familiarly known, was of a quiet disposition, but eminently brotherly. He made acquaintances easily and formed friendships that did not pass away. The fatal disease came upon him without warning, and with a future still beckoning him onward, he fell asleep on July 16, 1920, as one seeking to rest awhile, at the age of 85 years, 9 months, and 16 days.

There are left to mourn his going, one daughter, one son and four grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter. His death is a real loss. We join with those who mourn, and pray God's blessing in comfort, to support those who are bereft by his death. Yet faith and hope in immortality help us to believe that this life will unfold all the more in the great Beyond.

His going away from our midst reminds us of the poet who sang, "A Little Nearer to that City Not Built by Hands". "I cannot say, I will not say, That he is dead, he is just away, Think of him still as the same, I say, He is not dead—He is just away."

GREATER INTEREST IN TENNIS THIS YEAR

Rushville Clubs Has 28 Members and Two Courts in City Park Are in Use

PLAYERS OUT EVERY EVENING

Greater interest is being manifested in tennis in Rushville this season than ever before. There are twenty-eight members of the Rushville Tennis club, all of whom are tennis enthusiasts and have been enjoying the game this summer.

At the opening of the season, the club put only one court in condition, but because of the increased interest, another court has been prepared for playing and every evening a large number are out for a few sets.

The following are members of the club, and it is suggested that the names be clipped by players for reference:

Walter E. Smith, Earl Payne, Lloyd T. Nelson, R. C. Hargrove, Paul M. Spivey, John A. Tittsworth, Veri A. Bebout, P. H. Chadwick, Lester A. Coons, H. L. Miller, C. S. Black, Will M. Sparks, Randle Casady, Ralph Payne, Carl L. Gunning, Roy E. Harrold, Glenn D. Ruddell, F. G. Arbuckle, Jack Epstein, John P. Frazee, Jr., Rich Reed, Mary Jane Carr, Walter M. Milady's Gowns "For After Six"

By "MARJORIE"

New York, August, 13—Evening gowns of the fall and winter season seem to promise more scope for individuality than the street and afternoon dresses which so dogmatically declare that slinkiness is absolutely the only silhouette.

It is true that the swathed effect takes title role even in evening gowns, but there are a few exceptions. The very top-notch evening gown—the sort that would be worn at a Blue Bird ball if such a social event should happen all over again, is merely a very few yards of shiny material bound round and round the figure.

Such a model of jet over a fitted underslip of black satin is the piece de resistance of a Fifth Avenue house which specializes in "clothes for after six". Complying with the vogue for some covering over the epidermis, the sleeves of this model are of sheer chiffon and even envelop the wrist. There is no back, but a long train atones for any seeming deficit. A novel note is given by the sash of tulle which floats over the hips and is caught in a wired bow as wide as the entire frock. The streamers of this sash float to the floor. A corsage of deep-toned artificial roses is the only touch of color on the gown.

The more bouffant evening gowns are shown for the debutantes who have not sufficient maturity of bearing and face to wear the Theda-Bara gown. A charming model is shown on the Avenue of dove chiffon over coral satin. Soft bands of deep-toned marabou finish the top of the bodice and are used for shoulder straps. The Turkish harem effect is retained by the shirred-in skirt hem.

Combinations of net or lace with taffetas and softer silks are much in the vogue for these panniered and puffed soubretish dresses. Bright shades of flame, canary, emerald, and turquoise and peacock blue abound in the debutante gowns, while black laces, nets, jet, and satin are the more mature woman's favorites.

CHARGED WITH KIDNAPPING

Norristown, Pa., Aug. 13—Angus Pasquale, confessed crank in the Blakey Coughlin kidnapping case, was today charged with kidnapping, extortion and using the mails to defraud, on arraignment here today. Authorities here today expressed fear that Pasquale might die before he could be brought to trial. Pasquale said he had lost thirty pounds since his capture on August 2, and suffered from an incurable disease.

Don't forget to attend the Ruston sale, Monday, August 30.

Link Gary Says He'll Get Even With Gillilan

Link Gary, who returned home this morning from Rhinelander, Wisconsin on a visit with his brother, barely missing Strickland Gillilan, who "hawled him out" at the chautauqua Thursday afternoon for not being home after inviting the poet to his house, said this morning that he proposed to send Gillilan a "scorching" letter and tell him that his door was open yesterday that all he needed to do was to walk in.

Gillilan referred to the Rushville man yesterday as "the missing link" and had a lot of fun out of Link not making good on his invitation.

But Mr. Gary still feels that he has the upper hand in the situation. Some of his friends, thinking they would get "something on" Link, wired him as follows at Rhinelander, "Gillilan is here and your wife has no bread. Wire instructions."

They got a response that Mr. Gary had left for home Thursday evening. Mr. Gary said this morning he thought he would go and pay for the telegram because he thought it was worth the money.

DEATH OF COUPLE ENDS TRAGIC ROMANCE

Bodies of J. Ford Thompson, 48, and Mary Sneeringer, 16, Found Near Emmitsburg, Md.

MISSING SINCE WEDNESDAY

(By United Press.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—The tragic romance of a wealthy man of the world and a country miss was unfolded here today through the investigation of the death of J. Ford Thompson and Mary Sneeringer.

While Washington police spread the report out for the capture of Thompson on charges of abducting the girl, the bodies of the 48-year-old man and the 16-year-old girl were found in the wood near Emmitsburg, Maryland, not far from here. Both had been shot through the head and near the bodies two revolvers were found.

This ended the search which began when the couple after leaving the hotel in Emmitsburg where the girl was a waitress, had failed to return from a stroll Wednesday night. The girl's aunt, who has charge of the hotel, searched in Mary's room and found a note which vaguely hinted that she was going away but whether it was a hint of murder or a plan of elopement with the wealthy man, could not be determined.

Thompson, who was rich and had nothing to do, met the girl this spring when he moved from Washington to Maryland. He often spoke to his friends about Mary, telling of his plan to educate her. The girl apparently returned his affection.

The relatives of the girl objected to Thompson because of the difference in ages and also because Thompson was married. His wife some years ago obtained a legal separation from him, and is now living in France with her eleven year old child, according to information here.

speak at the chautauqua at three o'clock.

Governor Morrow said that he intended to discuss the league of nations, democratic extravagance and other issues of the campaign.

The governor, who delivered the notification speech at North Hampton, Mass., when Gov. Coolidge was notified of his nomination as vice-president on the republican ticket, said that the vice-presidential candidate was a sterling citizen and commands the utmost respect of his neighbors and friends. He said Gov. Coolidge was a man of splendid personality and character and deserved the recognition which the republican party had given him.

Gov. Morrow said he could see nothing but victory for both Indiana and Kentucky republicans. He also predicted that Senator Harding would carry Ohio by 100,000 majority.

Republicans gathered from far and near for the republican rally and the coliseum was packed with people when Governor arose to speak. Political workers were here from Newcastle, Indianapolis, Connersville, Greensburg, Shelbyville, Richmond, Liberty, Greenfield and many small towns in the sixth district.

FRIDAY THE 13TH HOLDS NO HORRORS

tainers. They will give a complete concert in the evening.

In the sixteen years history of the Rush county chautauqua, there have been few musical organizations which have been more popular with the audience than were the Vissochi musicians. Vissochi himself, in addition to being an artist extraordinary on the concertina, was a first rate comedian and kept the crowd laughing with his antics while playing.

Vissochi was given the most wonderful reception accorded any entertainer here this year. Both in the afternoon and evening, the audience just would not let him stop. He responded to four or five encores last night. Vissochi had a company of assisting artists which did not need any reflected glory. Miss Taylor, soprano, was especially good. The violinist and pianist and reader also performed splendidly and the company ensemble numbers seemed to have a special appeal for local people.

Dr. Lena K. Sadler, eminent Chicago physician, lectured last night on how to guard against disease, beginning with the small child and showing how they may be spoiled in infancy and allowed by their parents to grow up for lives of ill health.

Dr. Sadler referred frequently to the "little foxies" which nibble at the roots of good health and undermine it. She likened the warnings which nature throws out to the lantern swung across the road warning the motorists of danger ahead.

The lecturer said the great difficulty was that not many people heeded nature's warnings until it was too late. She told the story of one of her patients who scoffed at the idea of being diseased in any way but who was afflicted and was stricken and died within a few months because he refused to live properly.

Dr. Sadler said that one million people were dying needlessly every year and that many of them were being taken off prematurely by old age diseases. Failure to cure minor ailments which result in puss formations that get into the blood stream is responsible for this situation, Dr. Sadler said.

"Feed the baby by the clock and not by the squawk," admonished the speaker in urging regularity of habits not only for the baby but for grownups as well. She also impressed on parents the necessity of teaching children self control while young so that they will know how to live.

"Most of you people are eating your way into the grave as fast as you can," Dr. Sadler stated, pointing out that more temperate habits will lengthen life.

She declared that every person should get a health audit frequently to learn if they are physically unfit and correct the defects if there are any. Dr. Sadler also warned against fear and worry because they contribute so much to ill health.

3. We commend the recent action of the legislature in raising the minimum wage for teachers. We are also in favor of the legislature adjusting the qualifications of the teachers so that the salary will be commensurate with the qualifications.

4. We favor the plan of holding the Rush county institute in connection with the Rush county chautauqua.

5. We favor an equitable pension law for the teachers of Indiana.

6. Since the Sixth District Educational Association will meet at Rushville this year, we suggest that the Rush County Teachers' Association not hold its session this year, but give loyal support to the district association.

HEARS THE REMONSTRANCES

State Tax Commissioner Here Today for Reddenbaugh Petition

Mr. Tillman, a representative from the state tax commissioners, was here this morning and heard the remonstrators against the building, the William Reddenbaugh road in Orange township. The contract for the road was awarded to C. E. Reddington a few months ago, and the bond issue has been previously approved by the commissioners, but several people living in the township petitioned the state tax commission direct, asking that their remonstrance be heard. Both sides were heard this morning by Mr. Tillman, and the matter will be taken up by the state board and a decision rendered in the near future.

VENIZELLOS BETTER

Paris, Aug. 13.—The assassin's bullet which split the shoulder blade of Premier Venizelos of Greece into four pieces, was removed today. The operation was declared successful. After the operation it was said the premier's condition was satisfactory but that rest was absolutely necessary. He had a good night. The bullet was removed by means of radiograph.

GILLILAN DIVIDES HUMOR IN CLASSES

Chautauqua Lecturer Says Stories May be Classified And He Illustrated Some

KEEPS AUDIENCE IN UPROAR

Jokes Resulting From Absent-Mindedness are Related—Children's Humor Cleanest

Strickland Gillilan, poet and humorist, depicting the various kinds of humor in existence, taking each one in a separate manner, kept the audience at the chautauqua yesterday afternoon in an uproar spell bound with laughter, both by his comical recitations and his eloquence of delivering the funny stories.

From the very first moment that he landed on the platform until he had told the story of his little boy at home, the audience was kept in a roar and regretted that he was not on the program for a second appearance.

Mr. Gillilan explained throughout his lecture that there were many kinds of humor, including the every day stories, and stories from life, economic environment, children's humor stories that are often times caused from gloom and sadness, and humor derived from absent mindedness.

The orator first made it known that the best way to get rid of gloom and melancholy is to bury them, and when the tide goes the other way, to dig them up, and see how funny they appear. It was his business, he said, throughout life to distribute cheer, and that he was a great appreciator of humor.

He related about an accident at a crossing, where an automobile had been struck by a train, with several dead bodies thrown around on the ground, and the only surviving member, almost ready to die. A Jew came along and seeing what was left of the auto party, inquired of the man who was dying what had happened, and asked him a number of questions, during which time the man became worse and worse. The Jew asked, "Has the claim agent been around yet?", to which the man replied that he hadn't. The Jew then asked if it would be alright with him, if he lay down beside him.

Absent mindedness often times causes much humor, according to Mr. Gillilan and he depicted many instances in which through absent mindedness and forgetfulness, some good jokes had resulted.

In closing his lecture, he said that probably no cleaner and better humor is made, than is unconsciously spoken by children. He told about his own little boy, who had a hobby of collecting turtles, and when on one occasion the boy was dangerously ill he told his father that when he grew up he wanted to be a turtle.

When asked why he wanted to be a turtle, the small boy replied that when he got sick, all he had to do was to draw his head in and look around and see what was the matter with him.

INDIANA MAN FOR ATHLETIC COACH

Ralph Jones, Formerly of Wabash and Purdue, Takes Place This Year With Lake Forest College

AN ALL AROUND ATHLETE

First Started in Basketball Coaching but Later Developed Into an Athletic Director

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Indianapolis, Ind. Aug. 13—Ralph Jones will be the athletic director at Lake Forest University, Lake Forest, Ill., according to an official announcement of the athletic board of that school.

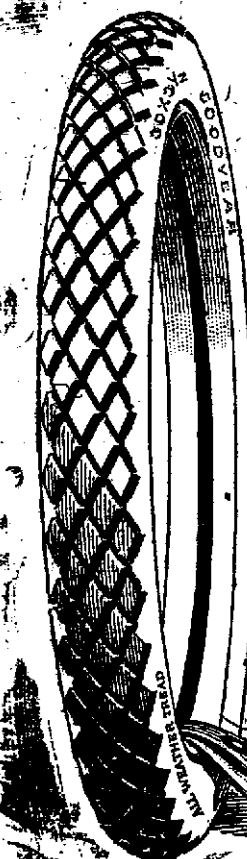

The selection of Jones as athletic director at Lake Forest is another honor won by a Hoosier. Jones is an Indiana man who has made good at athletics, and it has been an up-hill fight.

Jones is well known to high school teachers and basket ball coaches in all parts of Indiana for the reason he established a school for basket ball coaches at Illinois. This school was attended by many men from the high schools of Indiana and Jones' style of play is in evidence among the high school quintets in all parts of the state.

Twenty years ago Jones, just graduated from Shortridge high school in Indianapolis, signed a contract to coach basketball at that school. Basketball had been invented only about eight years at the time Jones started to coach, but he had played the game from the first time a team was organized in the Indianapolis Y. M. C. A.

The husky little coach saw a bright future in athletics, and he went to Crawfordsville where for one year he directed that famous Y. M. C. A. quintet of that city. Then Jones went to Rochester, Ind., where he organized and coached an independent basketball team. Not until Jones was at Rochester was that city heard of in basketball, but since that time Rochester has always taken first rank among the

Time after time the buyer of a tire sold at a sensationally low price is a big loser; true tire economy is a matter of low-cost mileage and not of tires made to sell at a few dollars each.

In Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3, 30x3½, and 31x4-inch sizes, the user secures the high relative value always produced by the world's largest maker of automobile tires.

In these tires you have assurance of exceptional service for every dollar of original cost because Goodyear-selected materials and Goodyear skill have been combined in their manufacture.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—and save money.

northern Indiana cities in the great indoor game.

Crawfordsville basketball fans watched Jones' success at Rochester with interest. Jones returned as athletic director of the Y. M. C. A. there and also basketball coach at Wabash college.

In those days, Wabash College proved unbeatable. Columbia University and Yale, the best college fives in the east, were trounced by Jones' team, Wabash defeated Purdue, walked away with Indiana, and found the other college teams easy except on one occasion when Rose Poly won a surprise game.

Jones branched out. He had a broad knowledge of how to train track and field athletes, and he knew base ball and played it. Wabash college officials chose him as the athletic director. He was successful in all branches except football, and was fairly successful in the gridiron sport.

Then Purdue University offered more money to Jones, and he went to Lafayette to coach the basketball and track team, and to act as assistant coach in football and baseball.

Jones' success again caused him to be offered more money and this time it was Illinois University that wanted him.

FINED FOR SPEEDING

Newcastle, Ind., Aug. 13.—Charles N. Sweet, who is now living in Rushville, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of speeding on East Broad street yesterday afternoon and was fined $1 and costs. Sweet, in a most agreeable manner, agreed that he was probably exceeding the speed limit and stated that he was ready to "take his medicine." He has been driving a Ford jitney between the city and the fair grounds. He asked the mayor to be lenient with him since, he said, he did not have a large bankroll. He was arrested yesterday afternoon when going twenty-seven miles an hour on

Garden Beauty Most Anyone Can Afford

Look about as you walk or drive through a residential district and note the attractive places. It isn't the "finest" homes by any means that catch your eye. More often it is the well kept yard, the shrubbery, the trimmed trees and flower beds.

And then when you see in combination with these, a neat fence, an arbor, a pergola and a bird house—you exclaim: "What a picture."

The wonder of it is that more folks don't have these tasty little garden features. There's nothing cooler and better looking. And the cost! You'll be surprised how reasonable it is.

We'll take just as much interest in supplying you with the lumber for these little improvements as if you were buying materials for a house. We can make some interesting suggestions.

Feed Every 3rd Hog FREE

Save feed and get your hogs ready for market in less time. Prove at our risk that you can save fully one third your feed, making it possible to feed every third hog free by feeding

Milkoline At 2c a Gallon

Milkoline has a base of pasteurized and sterilized, modified Buttermilk. It is guaranteed not to contain any sulphuric acid or anything of an injurious nature to hogs or poultry.

Aids Digestion: Thousands of the most successful hog raisers from New York to California during the past seven years have proved that Milkoline helps and assists digestion, tending to insure perfect assimilation of feed. It helps tone up the system so that hogs are less subject to disease, and practically insures gains of 2 1/2 pounds per head per day.

University Tested: Professor W. B. Combs while Asst. Prof. of Dairy Husbandry at Missouri University conducted a scientific test on Milkoline and found that Milkoline fed hogs put on more weight and showed 82.5% more profit than hogs not fed Milkoline. W. H. Graham a successful feeder of Middletown, Mo., said $30 worth of Milkoline made him an extra profit of $20. Lee Jackson of Wappingers Falls, N. Y., says Milkoline saved up a bunch of shoats in fine style and is great for brood sows.

Can't Spoil: Milkoline is guaranteed not to rot, sour or mold. It will keep indefinitely in any climate. Price does not come near it. It is always uniform, and is guaranteed to make you money or it doesn't cost you anything.

Distributed by

2c a Gallon Milkoline comes in condensed form, and you do the diluting on your own farm. When fed as directed Milkoline (one part Milkoline to 50 parts water or swill) costs only 2c a gallon. Full feeding directions free. It is shipped in convenient kegs and barrels which we supply free. The prices are as follows: 5 gal. $7.50; 10 gal. $12.50; 15 gal. $16.50; 25 gal. $22.00; 55 gal. $45.00. It pays to buy in barrel lots because you save 60c a gal. over the 5 gal. quantity.

30 Day Guaranteed Trial. You are safe in ordering any quantity of Milkoline today. Feed one half the shipment to your hogs and poultry in a thirty day test, then if you aren't entirely satisfied return the unused portion to us at our expense and we'll immediately refund every cent you paid us. We are so confident that you will find Milkoline the best money maker on the farm that the S. W. Boulevard Bank of Kansas City, sub-guarantees this offer. You are the sole judge. Send money order, or check, to us or our nearest dealer and we will ship immediately. Our booklet, "How to Handle Heavy Hogs to Market" will be sent free on request—your name on a card will do.

However you travel

whether by rail, steamship, or automobile, you will find American Bankers Association Cheques the safest, handiest way to carry your money.

"A. B. A." Cheques are safe, because if not countersigned they are useless to anyone but the owner. They are convenient, because hotels, railroads, steamship companies and merchants everywhere accept them as readily as cash in payment of bills, and because the only identification needed is the countersignature of the owner in the presence of the person accepting the Cheques.

Patented June 18, 1918

What a Hoosier Corn Turner Will Do For You

Saves its cost in two days.
Saves corn, time and labor.
Makes the drill run smoothly.
Makes the drill do better work.
Places every ear of corn and stalk back in the corn row where it belongs.
Makes the gathering of corn easier.
Keeps the outside disc from riding the corn row.
Rolls the pumpkins out of the way without injury.
Makes it possible for one man to sow his entire crop of wheat.
It is strictly a one-man outfit.

Don't wait until you are ready to sow wheat to order your corn turner. On account of the scarcity of material we will not be able to fill orders at the last minute. It would be well for you to place your order at once.
